

What Is Going On Tonight.

Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs at the Bred Theatre.
Vaudeville and Photoplays at the Auditorium.
Common Council Meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus will be commemorated at St. Patrick's church with masses at 5.30 and 7 o'clock.

Trolley Trips in New England.

An interesting booklet is the New England Trolley Trips for 1913, published by the Trolley Press of Hartford, containing Hudson Valley trips as well as new matter, pictures and routes in order to get quickly in touch with how and where to go and what to see. The book of 144 pages gives route, time, fares and the best points of interest, with many interesting views. There are 84 routes described in detail.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

New Vaudeville and New Photoplays Today.

All new faces will be seen today at the Auditorium, as the three excellent acts billed are all new to this city. The headliner for the first three days is a single turn, but the highest priced performer ever seen in vaudeville in this city. Arthur Rigby, the famous minstrel man, has been billed. His funny comedian will make you forget your troubles. This act is personally known to the management and is guaranteed to be the best one yet that has ever been in Norwich, with no exceptions.

Another good comedy act is offered by the Benton-Grey troupe. This is the funny playlet entitled "A Cowboy's Girl." The western humor displayed in this little sketch is delightful, and the scenery is carried to create an atmosphere of illusion of the plains. A very clever little lady is Belle Wilton, who fills the No. 3 position, and as a character singer there are none better.

An exceptional photoplay programme is booked for today, with a special two reel feature by the Paris-Globe. This film is a strong drama with a very deep plot and acted by the best performers of France. The settings are massive and grand, the photography is beautiful. The vivid fire scenes are realistic in the extreme—a feature film in every sense of the word. An exciting western film by the Frontier Co. is also being today. This film is a reproduction of an actual incident that occurred and it is entitled "The Last Run of the Old Santa Fe Coach." Two good comedies of the Crystal brand, Two Lunatics and His Romantic Wife, featuring the famous star, Pearl White, complete a show that is worth more than twice the price of admission.

BREED THEATRE.

The Wonderful Pathe Weekly With Its Countless Late Events.

Included in the list of splendid pictures at the Breed today is the wonderful Pathe weekly with its long list of interesting events. Several panoramic views of the Turkish cities, showing the awful effect of the enemy's fire, hold the undivided attention of all the spectators, while the merry dances of 7,000 children on the grass in Central Park, bewilder with its gaiety.

The Biograph play is entitled "The Tenderfoot's Money" and is a superb western drama sufficiently thrilling to please all and tells an old fashioned story amid beautiful scenery. Groundless Suspicion, the Big Edison offering, is a very fine story of home life, and playing with fire, the Vitaphone drama, tells another story of the moth and the flame order, and the whole bill is topped off with splendid comedies.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Big Feature Show for Decoration Day.

A bill that cannot be equalled anywhere for the money is billed for the last half of this week at the Davis with added features for Decoration Day. Harry M. Morse and his company head the list in a comedy sketch, Uncle Seth and the Hoodoo. Mr. Morse is by no means new to Norwich audiences, as he has appeared in many of the popular comedies and has been a big favorite. His beautiful bass voice has won for him many admirers, and he is now in the city for the first time. The sketch is full of bright lines and amusing incidents that keep the house in roars of laughter every moment they are on the stage, and his many friends in town will be glad to have a chance of renewing old acquaintances with Mr. Morse. The other acts include Rogers and Kohule, a team of clever entertainers, who do an amusing comedy skit entitled "The Seminary Girl." The Musical Sparks present a comedy musical act away from the ordinary that will be sure to be a hit here. Billy Shirley, the male Tetrizini, is a young fellow with a wonderful voice who sings baritone, tenor and soprano solos. This is surprising as well as entertaining. The photoplays include a two-reel western feature, Past Redemption, a beautiful musical story, and a comedy. There will be four complete shows of decoration day, the first one begins at 1.15 p. m. Usual holiday prices that

NEW HAVEN'S NEW SHOPS.
Electrical Equipment Repair Plant, Costing $650,000, About Completed.

New York, May 27.—An electrical repair shop designed to handle all of the now extensive electrical equipment of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad is approaching completion at Van Nest, Bronx Borough, New York city. It is expected that it will be in operation by August 1, or a short time before the electrification of the road from Stamford to New Haven is finished. The new shops represent an outlay of about $650,000 and they will be the most complete of their kind maintained by any road in the country. Up till now repairs to electric locomotives have been made at the New Haven shops chiefly, but the increase in the electric equipment due to the electrification of the road as far as New Haven has necessitated a shop where such work could be done exclusively. The location at Van Nest on the Harlem River branch was decided upon mainly because of its nearness to the great Harlem freight terminal of the road, which is already electrified and where a large part of the electrical equipment must necessarily be employed.

The new shops cover two acres of ground. They are made up of an inspection shed, a repair shop proper, a live vat house, blacksmith shop, storehouse and a power house. The inspection shed has four track pits 375 feet long. The repair shop proper covers nearly an acre and a half of ground and is two stories high. The power house covers three thousand square feet and the storehouse 7,500 square feet. All are built of red brick. With the exception of a small steam plant, chiefly for heating purposes, the power used in these big shops will be the same that moves the trains of the road, which is supplied by the great power plant at Cos Cob, Conn., which not only moves all the electric trains now run between New York and Stamford but the trains on the new Westchester & Boston road as well.

The New Haven now has a total of ninety-nine electric locomotives besides twenty-three multiple-unit motor cars. The ninety-nine electric locomotives are made up of sixteen switching locomotives, forty-seven passenger locomotives and thirty-six freight. Not all of these locomotives are in service as yet, most of the new freight locomotives being held in storage at Van Nest pending the completion of the electrification to New Haven, when all trains, both passenger and freight, it is expected, will move under electric power. These thirty-six electric freight engines intended to pull freight trains between the Harlem terminal and New Haven and which have all been delivered, are fifty feet long and weigh 150 tons. They have four drivers on a side and these are driven by eight motors. They will exert a maximum tractive effort of 40,000 tons and will haul a 1,500-ton freight train at a maximum speed of thirty-five miles an hour.

PATIENT PUZZLED DOCTORS.

Girl's Heart Stopped Beating at Intervals in Scarlet Fever Case.

New York, May 27.—East Newark physicians are greatly puzzled by the strange scarlet fever attack which resulted in the death of Miss Helen Dillon, a nineteen-year-old schoolgirl of 210 Central Avenue. She had been attending school regularly until Thursday when she returned home complaining of a sore throat. She felt ill. On Friday she became very weak and suddenly lost consciousness, and her heart ceased to beat. There was no physician present, and the members of her family believed the girl dead. By the time a physician had been summoned, however, she was breathing again. On Saturday and Sunday Miss Dillon fell back into unconsciousness, and heart action stopped. When she was conscious she complained of a sore throat and suffered from a high fever. The trouble was then suspected to be scarlet fever, but no rash appeared. A rash appeared Sunday, however, removing all doubt as to the nature of the disease. During the evening she died.

KNOW IT WELL

Familiar Features Well Known to Hundreds of Norwich Citizens.

A familiar burden in many homes.

The burden of a "bad back."

A lame, a weak or an aching back.

Often tells you of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Norwich testimony.

Mrs. Catherine Goode, 99 Thames Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "I suffered for years from kidney trouble, the first symptom being pain and weakness in the small of my back. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. Spots often appeared before my eyes and my health was badly run down. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, and they did me a world of good, strengthening my back and restoring my kidneys to a normal condition. I cannot find words to express my gratitude to Doan's Kidney Pills."
